Re: Case No. 2022-094

Dear Mr. Dillman:

We are in receipt of the complaint you filed against L. M., which was received in our office on March 4, 2022.

The Ethics Commission's jurisdiction is invoked when a public official or public employee has used their official position or office to obtain personal gain for themselves, a family member, or a business with which they are associated or there was some intent to corruptly influence a public official or public employee. The Commission is only authorized to investigate a complaint that on its face alleges facts which if true, would constitute a violation of the Ethics Act.

What information do you have to indicate that the fuel purchases were for L. M.'s personal use?

We would appreciate if you could provide this information to us within 10 days of receipt of this letter, or this matter may be dismissed.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brian H. Paterson, Jr.

Brian H. Paterson, Jr.
Assistant General Counsel
